February 2016

The Rev. John G. Paderson, Pastor 302-738-0840

This year the Lenten season begins on February 10th. That evening we will gather with Kingswood United Methodist Church at St. Nicholas Episcopal Church for an Ash Wednesday service. At the beginning of that service we will hear this invitation:

"Dear People of God: the first Christians observed with great devotion the days of our Lord's passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church to prepare for them by a season of penitence and fasting. This season of Lent provided a time in which converts to the faith were prepared for Holy Baptism. It was also a time when those who, because of notorious sins, had been separated from the body of the faithful were reconciled by penitence and forgiveness, and restored to the fellowship of the Church. Thereby, the whole congregation was put in mind of the message of pardon and absolution set forth in the Gospel of our Savior, and of the need which all Christians continually have to renew their repentance and faith.

I invite you therefore, in the name of the Church, to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. And, to make a right beginning of repentance, and as a mark of our mortal nature, let us now kneel before the Lord, our maker and redeemer."

That wonderful invitation tells us background and purpose of the season of Lent. It also issues a call to renew our faith by engaging in a regimen of spiritual practice during this season.

That invitation comes from something called The Book of Common Prayer, which is the Episcopalian guidebook to corporate and personal worship. In that book are prayer liturgies for the daily hours of prayer: morning, noon, and night, and just before going to bed, along with liturgies for Sunday worship and worship on other occasions.

I deeply appreciate my Episcopalian brothers' and sisters' devotion to prayer and worship. Each Ash Wednesday reminds me that we in the Reformed/Presbyterian tradition are part of something much bigger than ourselves. We are part of the one holy catholic and apostolic Church that comes in many different flavors. It reminds me that there is much that we can learn from how faith is lived in other Christian traditions just as there is much that they can learn from us.

On Sunday evenings, over the past several weeks, we have been studying other Christian traditions using a book entitled Christianity's Family Tree. Adam Hamilton, a Methodist Pastor who came to Christ in a Pentecostal church, is the author. In that book he looks at the major branches of the Christian family tree and then tells us what he appreciates most about each one. I like his approach.

While I am very appreciative of our own branch of the family tree, the Reformed/Presbyterian branch, I too appreciate the other branches. I can't say that I always agree with them, but I really do appreciate them and have learned much from them.

The Anglican/Episcopalian branch is no exception. According to Adam Hamilton that branch of the family tree was formed as an effort to find a middle way, a via media, between Roman Catholicism and Protestantism and is characterized by a dedication to prayer and worship.

This Lent whether or not you are able to make it to the Joint Ash Wednesday service, let us accept the invitation from our Episcopalian brothers and sisters in Christ to a holy Lent. Let us engage in an intensive exercise of the spiritual disciplines called for in that invitation: self-examination and repentance, prayer, fasting, self-denial, and the reading and meditating on God's holy Word. Let's do it for God's glory and for the sake of our faith.

Yours at the foot of the Cross,

John

PW NEWS

Please let me (Mary Anne) or Joanne know if you would prefer to have our March meeting on a Saturday and perhaps not in March. This seemed to work well last year.

Please note the Annual PW retreat in Ocean City in April posted on the bulletin board in Fellowship Hall and the Narthex. We have scholarship money available. Registration forms are available; please share within your circles. Follow this link for registration form

Morning Circle

We had to postpone our Christmas luncheon until late January Betty was busy all last year crocheting lap blankets, foot warmers, baby bonnets and sweaters and more mostly to pass the time. She sold those items for a nominal fee which she generously donated to our account to be used to help others

Fruitcake sales were not what we hoped but if you are lucky you can still get one, or three.

Myrtle was able to join us again after the loss of Dave. We are so glad to have her in our midst. We all love her and continue to pray for her.

Olive has been battling bronchitis but is gradually on the mend.

So while it seems like we're not off to a running start in 2016, I think looking after ourselves and each other counts as God's work. Our next meeting will be Thursday February 4th at 10 AM in the home of Betty Winter.

Peace

Our next meeting will be on Tuesday February 16th at 7 PM in the home of Julia Short.

The 27th Annual Cookie Walk held on December 11, 2015was a BIG success thanks to everyone who made it happen - soup makers, cookie bakers, lunch preparers/servers, advertisers, helpers of all types, attendees and whomever else helped in any way! THANK YOU!

Youth News

In the month of December the Youth group did a number of activities. To begin, we had our final 2015 Italian Buffet dinner. Thank you to everyone who was able to come out and support us. Overall, it was an amazing turnout and a great success. After that, the Youth decided to bake cookies to support the St. Andrew's 27th annual Cookie Walk. It was an amazing and fun night and we managed to make tons of cookies and great memories along with the help of the members of the Adult Bible Study. On December 31st, we held our 8th New Year's Eve lock-in party that included watching movies, eating extraordinary food, playing fun games, of and having a great night. We also watched the ball drop in Times Square on the screen in Fellowship Hall along with our sparkling cider toast. On January 3rd, we performed our Christmas Play, "Three Wise Dudes", which was a huge success. Thanks again to Sasha and Keyzia for spending their personal time and energy to come out every Sunday night for a few months to run and manage the play. Along with playing fun games and activities, Mr. Cliff, Mr. Bill, Mr. Mike, Mrs. Tracy, Mrs. Jane, all do an amazing job exploring the Bible with us and teaching the way of God. Starting with selling Valentine's treats, the Youth hopes to turn 2016 into an opportunity to not only have fundraisers, but to create another amazing year of memories.

The youth will be pre selling Valentine's Treats in Fellowship Hall on January 31 and Feb 7 for pick up on February 14th. We will be making chocolate covered goodies in three different arrangements. Please see one of the youth during coffee hour the next three weeks to place your order.

1 Corínthíans 13(NRSV) The Gíft of Love

13 If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant <sup>5</sup> or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; <sup>6</sup> it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. <sup>7</sup> It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

<sup>8</sup> Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. <sup>9</sup> For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; <sup>10</sup> but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. <sup>12</sup> For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. <sup>13</sup> And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.
